PROFILE

I am a dedicated and disciplined professional, a Hafiz Quran with an M.com degree, complemented by strong entrepreneurial experience through managing my own businesses. My hands-on experience has developed my problem-solving, team management, and adaptability skills. I am now seeking to apply my practical knowledge, business acumen, and growing interest in computer systems and technology to contribute effectively in a computer-related role. I am a quick learner, comfortable with digital tools, and committed to continuous learning in the IT field.
